

The Creative Community
Output Collective Presents:

Manchester Memories:
Local Communities
Experiences During The Covid-19 Era

Stephanie Gillibrand

On behalf of all the Manchester Memories
collaborators

RESEARCH Open Access

Marginalisation and distrust in the context of the COVID-19 vaccination programme: experiences of communities in a northern UK city region

Stephanie Gillibrand<sup>1*</sup>, Dharmi Kapadia<sup>1</sup>, Ruth Watkinson<sup>1,2</sup>, Basma Issa<sup>3</sup>, Charles...
Caroline Sanders<sup>1,2</sup>

Abstract
Background There are clear...
rates for some minor...
lower socioe...
Con...

RESEARCH

"We might not have been in hospital, but we were frontline workers in the community": a qualitative study exploring unmet need and local community-based responses for marginalised groups in Greater Manchester during the COVID-19 pandemic

Stephanie Gillibrand<sup>1*</sup>, Ruth Watkinson<sup>2</sup>, Melissa Surgey<sup>2</sup>, Basma Issa<sup>2</sup> and Caroline Sanders<sup>2,4</sup>

...significant increase in demand for the v...
...local communities. In Ge...
...multiple w...

Try What Works

You Don't Need To Over-Curate - Do What Works Best!

Listening
People in our communities don't usually get the chance to be listened to.

Time

There are so many people, with so many stories, which were not captured.

Costing
Support Staff
Time
Events and Celebration
Paying Public Contributors

<https://arc-gm.nihr.ac.uk/projects/understanding-experiences-GM-covid-vaccination-programme>

